

Full Bio – Alisha Eich

Emerging Canadian worship singer/songwriter Alisha Eich, is a GMA nominated artist that is paving the way for fresh and creative sounds within Canadian Christian music. Her heart for people to know and experience Gods love inside and outside of the church is so evident in her music. That same spirit is highlighted with her lyrical storytelling, sweet and powerful vocals, and melodic creativity. Her music is eclectic in nature as it easily flows from corporate worship music to a more contemporary indie sound.

Although her long time influences range from Carol King to Nat King Cole, you might find more similarities in her music to the sounds of more recent artists like Amanda Cook, or Kalley. Alisha developed a more serious interest in singing, playing the piano and writing music around the age of 11. As a teenager she was very influenced by worship leaders like Darlene Zschech, Delirious, Brooke Fraser and Hillsong United which changed the way she viewed corporate worship music. These artists showed how you could write creatively, authentically and spiritually at the same time. Alisha was raised in a ministry minded home and was very influenced by her parents Bruce Mann, a pastor, and Wanda Mann, a long time songwriter and worship leader as well. Using what was in your hand to serve God was the focus in her home and still is now. With the musical ingenuity of her brother (and producer) Timothy Mann, she's been able to create engaging, challenging, and encouraging music.

Alisha released her debut album, 'I'm Listening' on July 9th, 2021. It was nominated for Album of the Year at the 2022 Gospel Music Association Covenant Awards. Her newest release, 'Back to Jesus,' is a single that she's collaborated with Juno award winner K-Anthony and Lloyd Nicks, a very well known gospel artist and songwriter. Alisha has been busy writing and recording for the upcoming year so stay tuned!

Outside of her musical endeavours, Alisha is married to Cody Eich, a talented and internationally recognized tattoo artist, and together they have four young children; Phoenix, Gemma, and twin girls named Nova and Coco.
